

AUTOMATED SECURITY CONTROLS ASSESSMENT

Proactively monitor and remediate security gaps and misconfigurations across your security stack, without sacrificing business uptime.

ACHIEVE THE CYBER CERTAINTY YOU'VE BEEN SEEKING

Cybersecurity is a never-ending battle against the unknown. We keep finding ourselves continuously investing in new security tools, relentlessly seeking that elusive sense of certainty. But until now, certainty has remained nothing more than a fleeting sensation.

The nagging question persists: Are we truly protected?

Veriti provides an unparalleled security controls assessment tool that empowers you to take charge of your organization's security within minutes. Our consolidated security platform seamlessly integrates with your existing security infrastructure, enabling proactive monitoring for hidden gaps and misconfigurations across the entire security stack that could undermine your security posture or disrupt critical business operations. With Veriti, you can move beyond subjective assessments and embrace data-driven security measures, ensuring unwavering confidence in your organization's security resiliency.

MAKE INFORMED DECISIONS

Veriti arms you with precise insights generated minutes after first installed, and actionable non-disruptive remediation paths, enabling you to make informed decisions to fortify your defenses. Veriti unifies all threat prevention configurations into a single, comprehensive language, providing complete visibility into your risk posture, current security gaps, and the array of available countermeasures. Using machine learning, Veriti automatically analyzes all configurations and correlates them with sensor telemetries, security logs, and threat intelligence feeds to generate contextual, actionable insights tailored for the relevant security teams.
